

A Message from the Principal

“All music is only a sweet striving to express character,” wrote Henry David Thoreau in 1841. It is through our music education program, that so many of our students find comfort and success. It is through our music education program that so many of our students express themselves in ways they may have never thought possible. It is in our music education department that students find such outstanding role models and teachers. Finally, it is through our music education program that our students build integrity and strong character.

Reservoir's music students are among the best students in the school. Along with their teachers, the students dedicate a great deal of time to their music studies. They provide parents, friends, staff, and community members with entertainment that far exceeds that of most high schools in America. It is only with the support of parents and community members that Reservoir's music program can continue to flourish and grow. Therefore, it is my great hope that you will sponsor our music program and donate financially, in kind, or with your time as we continue to provide our children with an outstanding experience in music education.

Thank you so much for your commitment to our music programs and to our students. RHS music is a worthwhile investment in our students' futures. It will be an investment that reaps benefits for years to come.

Dr. Adrienne Kaufman
Principal, Reservoir High School

"Music is the universal language which establishes a common bond among all subjects and people"

—William H. Yoh, Jr.
The National Association for Music Education

Matthew Dubbs, Band Director

The band program offers the instrumental student with a wide variety of choices. Auditions are held to place the student within his individual skill level. Choices range from competing with Marching Band to playing sweet refrains in Symphonic Band or Concert Band. Other ensembles, such as Jazz Band, Indoor Drumline, and Pit Orchestra, support numerous school functions, such as drama. The band program provides a firm foundation for what is the RHS Music Department.

Dr. Greg Knauf, Chorus Director

The choir program offers a wide variety of musical choices for the school's diverse student population. Concert Choir, an un-auditioned ensemble, and the Madrigal Singers, which is auditioned, perform significant choral music from the 1300s to the present. The Women's and the Men's Vocal Ensembles and the Women's and the Men's Quartets are all auditioned ensembles that perform both traditional and pop/jazz music. Choirs perform at school, county and out-of-state festivals, as well as within the community throughout the year. The choral groups often collaborate with various RHS instrumental ensembles.

Colin O'Bryan, Orchestra Director

The orchestra is a group that prides itself both on its mature approach to classical literature and its unique sense of identity. The program has set and maintained a standard of excellence that is the RHS Music Department. Comprised of the Symphonic Orchestra, the Chamber Orchestra, the String Orchestra, and various quartets, the strings program has flourished. Students taking part in the orchestra program are given the opportunity to read a varied level of professional literature in an atmosphere that is as conducive to group performance as it is to personal success. The orchestra regularly collaborates with the choir, performing a standard repertoire of mixed literature.
